NOVEMBER 4TH, 2018
24th Sunday after Pentecost

Minister - Colin Cross
Pianist - Dennis Nordlund
Duty Elder - Jan Higgins
Session Clerk - Elizabeth Birkinshaw
Board Chair - John Moss

Thank you for joining us in worship this Sunday morning.
The Rev. Colin Cross will lead us in worship today.

We invite you to join us for a social time in the hall downstairs immediately following the service today.
If you are visiting, would you kindly complete the card found in the pew, and place it in the offering plate, so we will have a record of your attendance.

Greeters this morning are Jeanne Underhill and Merrilyn Kerr.

Please help with recycling by taking this bulletin home.

CALL TO WORSHIP

*The Bible is entered, followed by the choir & Rev Cross.

CALL TO WORSHIP

L. God calls us, right here in ordinary life.
Are we listening? What might happen next?

P. Speak again Lord, for your servants are listening.

L. "And afterward,
I will pour out my Spirit on all people.
Your sons and daughters will prophesy,
your old men will dream dreams,
your young men will see visions."

P. Speak again Lord, for your servants are listening.

L. "Even on my servants, both men and women, I will pour out my Spirit in those days," says the Lord.

P. Therefore rend your hearts, not your garments. Wait, watch and listen.

L. Wait, watch and listen, for God is gracious and compassionate, slow to anger and abounding in love!

All. Lead us Lord; fill us Lord; send us Lord! Thanks be to God.

*Opening Hymn    #415 Children of Jerusalem

Prayer of Approach & The Lord's Prayer

The White Poppy not only symbolises Remembrance for victims of war, but represents a lasting commitment to peace and the belief that war should not be celebrated or glamorized. Created on the island of Iona in Scotland in 1933, the White Poppy commemorates all victims of war. Wear it to mourn also, the devastation of the environment caused by war, to reject war as a way to social change, to call for dialogue and peaceful conflict resolution, to show your committment to building a better future, because remembering is not enough!
